ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 27-year old born and raised in the Houston, Texas area. He has been in the custody of the Harris County Jail since September 2017. He previously lived with his maternal grandparents, in Houston in a home owned by his grandparents. He has two children; one with his wife whom he is separated from, and one from a previous relationship. Both children reside with their mothers.
2. Defendant is unemployed and has minimal work history. He has minimal property or financial ties to the community.
3. Defendant's criminal history includes arrests for aggravated robbery and possession of a controlled substance, and convictions for disorderly and deadly conduct, possession of a controlled substance with the intent to deliver, evading arrest, unlawful use of a criminal instrument, and aggravated assault against a family member. He is currently facing state charges for evading arrest and violating a protective order.
4. Defendant is currently charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2). He faces up to 10 years in prison.
5. An officer testified at the hearing that defendant's child was in the car with him when he was stopped after shooting out the car window. Defendant's maternal grandfather testified at the hearing, but failed to assure the court that defendant would have adequate supervision to ensure his appearance.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on December 7, 2017.
